Mission Teams Are A Big Help

We have had some great mission teams so far this Spring and Summer, but we aren't done yet. So far we have had three teams come and go with another two teams yet to come. We await a team from Illinois first and then one from Kentucky at the end of the month of July. Prior teams for this year have done so much work to the new house including: siding work, tearing down walls, scraping floors, cleaning out debris, landscaping, and lawn work. These teams have also served at the Meal Ministry, taught Bible classes, and led devotions. In addition, they have assisted in picking up donations and helping at the thrift store. They've done so much for us already this year. We want to say a job well done to the mission teams of Mississippi, Ohio, and Florida.

Mission teams are very important to us. These groups save us thousands of dollars and hundreds of man hours. They perform work that we could not do on our own. Many of the mission teams bring professional workers that are skilled to complete many of the jobs that would otherwise require us to hire contractors to complete. We cannot afford to hire electricians, plumbers, landscapers, and other skilled professionals to do all the work that needs done. So many people with so many different talents are a gift. It is such a blessing to have these mission teams come. Praise God for the mission teams!

Mississippi team's fifth year

Many of the people who make up the mission teams take a week of vacation from their normal job to come here and serve. For many it is the only week of vacation they get. The mission teams consist of men, women, and youth. They are a great blessing to our ministries. The churches and the people give so much more than most will ever know. This year there has been injuries, sickness, and obstacles. Yet the mission teams still keep coming. These mission teams are faithful, strong, and determined. People have asked where we get these teams. Well, we have to go after them. We tell them our story, the vision, our purpose, and how we have been called to help those that are in need and are broken. Each year we invite mission teams to come and help us. We visit existing partner churches to maintain their partnership and visit new churches to begin new partnerships. We can only say that this is a God thing; a real God thing. We want to say Thank You to all of you that are missionaries of the past, present, and those of the future who already are planning a trip in 2019. Only God can put something like this together and we PRAISE HIM!
